Introducing the Garden of Remembrance Mausoleum

An elevated setting for enduring memory.

We are proud to open the Garden of Remembrance Mausoleum, offering families a serene, dignified space designed for quiet reflection. Set on an elevated point with sweeping views, this newly completed setting blends natural garden landscapes with timeless architecture.

Options & Architectural Features

- Capacity Options: Features approximately 450 crypt spaces (single and double spaces) and 530 niches.
- Premium Finishes: Detailed with polished London White and Swedish Mahogany granite covers.
- Tranquil Setting: Landscaped to provide a secluded, peaceful sanctuary year-round.

Schedule Your Private Tour With initial selections now open, prime crypt and niche locations are available. Contact our Memorial Counselors today to reserve a private walkthrough.

Coming Soon: Urn Garden of Remembrance

We are pleased to announce the upcoming development of our Urn Garden of Remembrance—a thoughtfully designed space that will offer a peaceful and dignified setting for cremation memorialization.

This new garden will feature a variety of options, including single, companion (double) and private family placements to accommodate individual preferences. Surrounded by beautifully curated landscaping, the area will provide a serene environment for reflection, complete with benches for quiet moments of remembrance.

Designed with both beauty and tranquility in mind, the Garden of Remembrance will be a lasting place to honor loved ones in a comforting and natural setting. Additional details will be shared as this project progresses.

Progress underway on St. Mary's II

Construction of the new St. Mary's Mausoleum Extension building is progressing well. This significant development represents an important step in our ongoing commitment to expand and enhance the options available to the families we serve. We look forward to sharing further updates as this project continues to advance.

By purchasing in advance, families can secure preferred locations, lock in today's pricing and ensure their wishes are carried out with care and dignity. Our experienced counselors are available to assist in selecting the option that best fits your needs.
